To Whom It May Concern:

This letter is my professional recommendation for SIB Development & Consulting. We chose SIB Development & Consulting because their emphasis on clients' needs promised a dynamic, scalable solution. SIB empowers firms by demonstrating how effective auditing goes beyond identifying various billing errors. SIB effectively negotiated with our vendors, and helped us to attain new rates to be applied to our various vendor accounts. SIB Development achieved quantifiable improvement in a short time, with little effort on the part of our staff. Our company will save tens of thousands of dollars in the years to come from the savings we are deriving from SIB's review process.

Choosing SIB Development & Consulting was a great decision-for our company. Their ability to locate numerous savings, refunds and errors was truly eye opening. They are an excellent value; there's not a moment of wasted time. I strongly recommend SIB Development & Consulting for anyone interested in capturing savings for their organization.

Sincerely,
