Re: SIB Development & Consulting

To Whom It May Concern:

When SIB Development and Consulting approached our company about helping us to save on our monthly expenses, we were hesitant at first. However, their persistence for us to become a client has carried over to their determination to find us savings, refunds, and billing errors from our vendors. As a result of SIB's review, our company will save tens of thousands of dollars in the years to come. Their review was non-invasive to our daily operations. We recommend SIB's review process to other companies with multiple locations.

Sincerely,
