To Whom It May Concern,

My company has had a very positive experience working with SIB Fixed Cost Reduction. Their team was very diligent and professional while reviewing overhead costs at our restaurant locations, and their work is saving us money.

One area where SIB has been very helpful is our wireless telecom costs. SIB was able to get our cellular provider to stop charging us for services we weren't using, and they put us on a more cost-effective plan. We liked working with SIB because it was like having a whole new staff putting their expertise to work for our benefit. Since they only charged us a contingency fee based on the savings they found, we're left with a guaranteed net benefit every month.

SIB seems to be unique in the breadth of their scope and their nationwide track record of working with all kinds of restaurant concepts. They were a great fit for us, and we are confident that other businesses would enjoy working with them too.

Sincerely,

John Brodersen
